*How To Get Sh*t Done*

I've called this mini course, "How To Get Shit Done", but I should have called it "How To Get The RIGHT Sh*t Done."

If you find that you're crazy busy all the time, then it's highly likely that you're working on a bunch of stuff that's just not that important. Completing this mini-course will help fix that.

Don't let yourself stay fake-busy, working on stuff that isn't going to take you forward.

How can you break this habit?

The first step is realising that if you don't find at least some time each week to work on yourself and your business, things are never going to change.

The Step-By-Step Guide - *How To Get Sh*t Done*

Step 1: Find a regular time and place to study for 1 hour per week

Commit 1 hour every single week, without fail, to studying and working on yourself and your business.

Find a time in your diary right now where you can sit down and watch some videos (like the ones listed below).

Can you do this from home? Or in a local cafe with some headphones on?

I want you to pick a place where you won't be interrupted for an hour.

That probably isn't in the office, unless you can barricade the door and unplug the phone. I don't want your team, your spouse, or your kids to be able to get hold of you for this one hour per week. It's got to be quiet time so you can focus and think.

Block out the time now for the next 4 weeks. Make it a recurring commitment.

Step 2: Do your first hour of study right now (or as soon as you possibly can)

Go and do your first hour of study right now if you can. Or tonight, or tomorrow morning before you start your day.

It's going to make you feel good about yourself.

In your very first hour of study time I want you to watch Video 1: The Four To Do Lists.
